"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath.

READY TO ARBITRATE.

"Any fair proposals for arbitration will be considered, no matter from what source they come," said President Small, of the telegraphers' union in Chicago yesterday. Small is unwilling to precipitate a struggle between the telegraphers and the Federation of Labor, and if unprejudiced and wholly fair parties propose arbitration it will be accepted with the probability that a referendum will be demanded by members of the union. Every telegraph operator who left his position with the companies two weeks ago must make individual application for reinstatement before he will be taken back. This policy of the companies was announced yesterday, and means not only that there will be no union recognition, but even a committee from the ranks of the strikers will not be treated with.

The striking telegraph operators in New York yesterday were anxiously looking forward to Saturday when President Small is expected to arrive from Chicago. It was said at the union headquarters that the purpose of President Small's visit would be to endeavor to bring about arbitration between the strikers and the companies. General Superintendent Brooks, of the Western Union, when asked yesterday if he expects to consult with President Small, of the telegraphers' union, during the latter's visit to New York, said that he would not meet the strike leaders under any circumstances. He said there is nothing whatever that he cares to discuss with the head of the telegraphers' organization. Belvidere Brooks, superintendent of the eastern division of the Western Union Company, said yesterday that seven strikers had applied for reinstatement at the main office, and two of them had been re-employed. Eighteen or twenty operators who went on strike returned to work in Chicago, two in Baltimore and four in Washington.

The leased-wire telegraphers at Pittsburg decided not to go out on a strike, as had been promised, and this put another complication on matters. It had been expected by some of the strike leaders that the leased-wire men would go out and thus tie up business. Early yesterday the Western Union officials at Pittsburg threw down the gauntlet to operators, announcing that the leased-wire men were afraid to strike, and that the strike was already lost. Later a bomb was thrown into the strikers' camp by an announcement from both Western Union and Postal officers that under no condition would men high up who left their keys be permitted to take their old positions on returning to work. It is asserted that even the highest priced striker will be forced to begin again at the foot of the ladder and at lowest salary.

ROBBER CAUGHT.

William H. Hicks, paymaster for the Schaum & Uhlinger Company, textile machinists, in the northwestern section of Philadelphia, was held up and robbed of $6,000 within a short distance of the machine shops yesterday by two highwaymen, one of whom shot him in the right arm. Hicks, accompanied by Walter P. McDonald, purchasing agent for the company, was on his way to the shop with a satchel containing the $6,000, which was to be used in making up the pay envelopes of the employes, when he was waylaid, it is charged, by John Posicki, a former employe of the Schaum & Uhlinger Company, and a companion. The highwaymen held pistols at the heads of Hicks and McDonald and demanded the satchel containing the money. Hicks carried a revolver, which he drew, when one of the thieves grabbed the satchel and fired at Hicks. The bullet struck Hicks in the right arm, compelling him to drop the revolver. The robbers fled and McDonald picked up Hicks's pistol and began shooting at them. The shooting attracted a crowd. After a chase across open lots Posicki jumped on a trolley car and, holding his revolver at the motorman's head, commanded him to run the car as fast as he could, but the pursuers pulled the trolley pole from the wire and stopped the car and the fugitive was caught. After the chase the stolen satchel was found lying on one of the open lots across which the highwaymen fled.

WANT MARRIAGE ANNULED.

Attorney for the guardian of George Rhodius, the young millionaire of Indianapolis who recently married a woman named Dare and who was declared incompetent to manage his estate, brought suit yesterday to annul the marriage. The complaint charges that Elma Dare entered Rhodius's room late at night, while he was physically and mentally weak from excesses, forced him to dress himself and accompany her to Louisville, Ky., where they where they were married, the Dare woman answering all the questions propounded Rhodius. The complaint says that Rhodius's real estate holdings in Indianapolis are worth $700,000, in addition to personal property of great value, and that he was kidnapped and forced into an illegal marraige in order that this fortune might be secured by the alleged wife.

COMMISSIONER REMOVED.

Gov. Hoke Smith yesterday morning issued an order, to take immediate effect, suspending Commissioner Joseph M. Brown, of the Georgia railroad commission, from office and appointing Gayton McLendon to fill the vacancy. Governor Smith's order suspends Commissioner Brown indefinitely, and Mr. McLendon will serve during the remainder of his time. The order gives no specific reason for the suspension, but simply cites a section of the code conferring authority on the Governor to suspend a commissioner who does not meet the demands of the office. The naming of Mr. McLendon to a place on the commission to fill the vacancy made by Mr. Brown's summary suspension will meet with general approval, as he has already been elected to a place on the commission by the people and by his wide knowledge of rate-making is fitted for the position. The attitude of Commissioner Brown on all important rate questions that have been before the commission is known to be the cause for his suspension. The announcement of Commissioner Brown's suspension, which practically amounts to dismissal from office, has created a profound sensation. Brown is a brother of the late Joseph M. Brown, formerly governor of Georgia.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

A SUIT which will attract considerable attention, and which, it is believed, served as a test of the validity of a recently-enacted Pennsylvania law, was closed at Washington, that State, yesterday when a man was acquitted on a charge of violating the statute passed at the last legislature, prohibiting the wearing of secret society emblems and insignia by nonmembers. The man was accused by the Masons of wearing a Masonic pin when he was not a member of a regularly-sanctioned Masonic lodge. In his defense the man proved conclusively that he had been regularly received into a Masonic lodge in Ohio, although admitting that at present he is identified with the membership of a clandestine body of Masons in Pennsylvania, not recognized by the Grand Lodge of that State. Prominent Masons from many sections were in attendance at the trial, and the history of Masonry was reviewed in testimony from its organization to the present time.

IN his speech before a mass meeting of strikers at Chicago on Tuesday President Small of the telegraphers' union advised the unmarried men to go west to work in the harvest fields, and urged patience, courage and determination. He cautioned his hearers to have faith in their leaders and not to expect a general knowledge of "state secrets." This was taken to be an answer to the feeling of unrest that some of the telegraphers have evinced because of their doubt of the leaders' policies and forthcoming moves. Mr. Small's advice for the men to go out into the harvest fields will not be relished by a majority of them who are totally unfitted for such work.

OVER one-third of the exports of this country are now sent direct from southern ports. The total exports for the last fiscal year were valued at $1,880,692,697; of this amount $734,073,462 was sent from the South, showing a gain over the previous fiscal year for southern ports of $92,040,699. The exports of cotton from the United States for the last fiscal year were worth $548,000,000—a magnificent contribution of one of the necessities of living to world-wide demand and demonstrating that still "cotton is king."

IT IS SAID that North Carolina, under Governor Glenn's leadership, is headed toward prohibition. Colonel Watterson's Lexington address seems to be falling, in the South, at least, on dry ground; for, despite his protests, many southern people seem bent on reorganizing themselves "in the dread image of Maine and Kansas." Prohibition has signally failed in those two States, but, notwithstanding this, some of the southern States insist upon trying the experiment.

THE best check upon the imposition of exorbitant railroad freight rates is to be found in the enlargement of facilities for water transportation. The most immediate means of curbing offensive industrial monopolies in the United States and of cheapening the cost of living is to reduce the tariff rates upon all commodities where the cost of production in this country is as low as the cost of production in foreign markets. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

AS A result of a conference held today ministers of Coffeyville, Kansas, will announce a union scale of prices for the conduct of funerals, and will appoint a committee to start a movement toward securing a State-wide adoption of the scale. Coffeyville ministers will charge five dollars for every funeral conducted other than for members of their own churches. In a neighboring city recently measures were taken toward having only union-made coffins used.

CABLE dispatches state that German wine handlers admit that more "Niersteiner" wine is shipped to America than is produced in the whole Niersteiner district. Similarly there is more "imported" Pilsener beer in our market than could be brewed in a decade in Pilsen. All this goes to show that it will be many years before the consumer can put absolute faith in a fallible food or drink label, even with the many pure food laws on the statute books.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 22.

Acting Secretary of War Oliver, after consultation with H. H. Rogers, the counsel of the Isthmian Canal Commission, has reached the decision that it will be proper and legal to authorize Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, to incur a deficiency in the prosecution of the work on that waterway. Col. Goethals recently reported that the work was progressing so rapidly that he could economically use during the present fiscal year about $8,000,000 more than Congress appropriated. The question arose whether this could be legally done in view of the fact that Congress had prohibited heads of executive departments from spending more than the amount of their appropriations. The alternative was a diminution in the work on the canal through the laying off of men, etc. An examination of the original Spooner act, under which the Panama canal work was undertaken, has satisfied the officials here that this enterprise is exceptional and does not come under the prohibition mentioned and Secretary Oliver will so report to the President. If the President agrees with this determination of the question, Col. Goethals will be authorized to go ahead with the work on the expanded lines he has laid out and to expend as much money as, in his judgment, can be profitably utilized.

There will be an important conference at Oyster Bay tomorrow afternoon between the President and Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry, and Rear-Admirals Evans and Brownson in connection with the forthcoming movement of the battleship fleet to the Pacific Coast.

Detective D. O. Baldwin, of Roanoke, Va., a famous Sherlock Holmes of the Old Dominion, left Washington today for New York, whence he will sail tomorrow for Buenos Ayres, to bring back to this country Moses Ferris, a Syrian, who is wanted by the Virginia authorities at Roanoke on a charge of having murdered a fellow Syrian named Assid, several weeks ago.

Medical officers of the American army, under the direction of Provisional Governor Magoon, have set out to clean up Cuba and once again rid the island of yellow fever. Following out the plans as outlined by Gov Magoon in his report to War Department last Monday, the work of fumigation and cleaning up, with the view of producing more favorable sanitary conditions, has been put under way in Cienfuegos, where yellow fever has attacked the army, and will be prosecuted into all parts of the island.

SEMINARY EXHIBITS AT THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

In accordance with the resolution of the board of trustees of the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city, at its last meeting, a number of valuable articles of great historic interest either belonging to or placed in the keeping of that institution have been recently sent to the Jamestown Exposition, and are now on exhibition there in the church department of the Hall of History, which is a fire proof building Conspicuous among there treasures are the vestry books and registers of many of the old colonial parishes. These are of priceless value as they are the main records of the history of the Episcopal Church in Virginia. The old bible and prayer book of Pohick Church used before the Revolutionary War are also placed on exhibition with the ordination papers of the Right Honorable and Rev. Bryan Lord Fairfax, formerly rector of Christ Church in this city. Photographs of the present Seminary buildings, and of the old home of the Seminary, when located in this city from 1823 to 1827, now occupied in part by the Business Men's League, on the southeast carner of King and Washington streets, are also on exhibition with a good pen and ink sketch of the old Seminary building formerly on the Hill, and removed in 1859 to make room for the present building.

Besides these objects of interest cases of photographs of all the bishops and missionaries who are on the alumni roll of the Seminary, together with the past and present members of the faculty, were sent by request of the committee on the exhibit from the Episcopal Church.

Of the cases containing photographs of the bishops and missionaries a member of the faculty has received the following appreciative notice: "You will be gratified to know the great interest and enthusiasm that the exhibit from the Virginia Theological Seminary arouses. Strangers are impressed by the noble number of bishops and missionaries that are among your Seminary alumni, and friends and relatives recognize familiar faces with joy."

The Firemen.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 22.—A smashing of all speed records with fire reel and hose is promised when the volunteer firemen of Virginia engage in their contests on the last day of their annual convention which will be held in this city on the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month. The contests are not for Virginia firemen alone but teams from Maryland, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Delaware, New Jersey and perhaps one from Florida will enter. Entries from most of these States have already been received and several of the entering teams hold speed records in their own States. One reel and hose race will be for Virginia teams only while the others will be open to the world, and the Virginia teams are now training in the hope that they may keep the speed honors within the State. The contests will be held on an ideal course and will be witnessed by thousands of firemen from every part of the country. Large purses have been offered for every event on the racing programme.

At least twenty-five bands will have a part in the parade of firemen which will be one of the features of the convention. Six will be furnished by the toRns in this immediate vicinity while others are coming from Virginia towns and from other States. Nearly all of them have entered the contest in which a purse will be given to the best band.

At Columbus avenue M. E. Church, Baltimore, by Rev. J. A. Jeffers, Wednesday, August 21, 1907, Mr. WILLIAM H. BOXBY, of Warwick, Ohio, and Miss HATTIE M. CRANE, of this city.—[Washington papers please copy.

News of the Day.

Mr. J. P. Morgan returned from abroad and only smiled when asked if he had read the President's speech.

Capt. Joseph C. McElroy, of Ohio, postmaster of the House of Representatives since 1893, died suddenly yesterday at Delaware, Ohio, where he was visiting his son. He was seventy-five years old.

An important decree has been issued altering the conditions necessary for the validity of marriages of Catholics. If a couple desires to marry and the district in which they live has no priest they may express mutual consent in the presence of two witnesses and the marriage will be valid.

Charging the United States grand jury at Montgomery, Ala., yesterday afternoon, Judge Thomas G. Jones urged the indictment of any county or State officer who interferes in any way with the injunctions issued by his court nullifying the cheap rate law, recently passed by the Legislature.

Dr. Eliphalet Wright, 90 years old and the oldest practicing physician in Massachusetts, died today at his home in Lee. He led a regular life, having limited himself to one cigar a day since he was a young man. His greatest fame came from his successful treatment of pneumonia cases.

Robbers in Chicago early today held up Charles W. Ely, of Lenox, Iowa, beat him into submission, relieved him of his valuables, and threw him from the Van Buren Viaduct on to the railroad tracks while an express train was approaching less than half a block away. He was pulled however, from the tracks and saved by the police.

A rumor is current in London to the effect that Francis Rea MacMillan, the American violinist, had started three days ago for an ascent of Mont Blanc, and that he had not been heard from since. Hence it was believed that some serious accident must have happened to him. A dispatch from Berne yesterday says that Mr. MacMillan is safe and that no accident happened.

General A. W. Greely, who during the last year commanded the northern division of the army, says that during the last year cavalry horses furnished his division have varied in price from $125 to $174, while twelve years ago horses of equal grade could be purchased at prices ranging from $75 to $110. He says that conditions look to a continuance of limited supply and increasing prices.

The outlook for the contest in the democratic senatorial primaries in Maryland is becoming decidedly more interesting. State Senator Arthur P. Gorman is expected to announce his candidacy for the federal Senate in a few days. In political circles his candidacy is accepted as a fact. Should he not enter the field and should Governor Warfield carry Howard county for Senator, Mr. Gorman would be bound as a member of the Legislature, if re-elected, to vote for Mr. Warfield.

The unusually dry condition of the forests and woodlands throughout Massachusetts caused by the almost entire absence of any copious rain during the past month has been responsible to a large extent for the great damage to Massachusetts forests by fires which have swept through southeastern Worcester county across the Cape Cod district and in Bristol and Plymouth counties. About 7,500 acres of woodland have already been destroyed, and in several cases the flames have not yet been checked, despite the fact that 2,500 men are engaged in fighting the fire.

That Mrs. Andrew Goetz, church worker and highly respected in her home, West New York, N. J., should have stolen funds belonging to the children of the Sunday school of St. John's Lutheran Church could not be believed Tuesday until it was learned that her own husband had cried out to representatives of the church: "Gentlemen, my wife is a thief!" Mrs. Goetz is missing from her home and the police have been asked to arrest her on the charge of theft. There is missing $680 in Sunday school funds and $80 raised, penny by penny, by the children for an altar in the new church, now building.

Paul Barth, democratic leader of Louisville, Ky., removed from office recently as the result of a contest of his election on the ground of fraud, shot and instantly killed himself yesterday afternoon. Barth was a wealthy dealer in cement and was identified with the democratic party in local politics for many years, having been president of the board of aldermen before he became mayor. He was declared elected two years ago, after the most sensational election ever held in Louisville. Ballot boxes were stolen and revolvers and clubs were freely used about the polls. The fusion ticket put in the field contested the election, and at length won after a long fight through the courts. Robert W. Bingham was appointed to succeed Barth by Governor Beckham, and all the democratic office-holders in the city and county were turned out.

BISHOP GIBSON IN ACCIDENT.

CHURCH CORNER STONE LAID.

The corner stone of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Jefferson-ton, Culpeper county, was laid yesterday by Fairfax Masonic Lodge, of Culpeper, assisted by individual members of Masonic lodges from Warrenton and Washington. The ceremony was in charge of Worshipful Master W. I. Gilkeson, assisted by Marshal of ceremonies A. L. Goodloe. Alden Bell introduced Rev. H. E. Johnson, of Suffolk, Va., who was selected by the church organization to make an address. Appropriate music was rendered, and the ladies served a luncheon for the guests.

C., were married at the Virginia State building, on the Jamestown Exposition grounds, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The wedding was a clandestine one, Miss Lee having left her Carolina home that morning ostensibly to visit friends and to see the exposition.

Rear Admiral Brownson, acting Secretary of the Navy, has approved the findings of the court-martial in the case of Chaplain Harry W. Jones, who was tried at Norfolk on charges of issuing worthless checks and falsehood. He was found guilty and sentenced to dismissal from the navy. Admiral Brownson approved the verdict. Chaplain Jones appeared in the Corporation Court of Norfolk yesterday and gave bond in $500, with W. E. Bohart, proprietor of a cafe, and J. J. Foster, manager of a piano company, as sureties for his appearance at the October term of the Corporation Court for trial under the indictment pending against him charging grand larceny for uttering a check which he had no funds to meet. Jones, who was recently court-martialed and sentenced to dismissal from the naval service, has not received orders ordering him to resign his commission.

LAND SALES.

Mr. Nat Tyler, jr., of New York, has purchased about forty acres of land from the Waverly estate. He will build a home for himself on a part of it, and some of it will be divided into lots and sold.

Mr. Leo Evans has purchased the Clarence Moore place near Warrenton for twelve thousand dollars. As illustrative of the increase in value in this community we recall that this place was purchased not many years ago for $2,800, then sold for $6,000, then for $9,000 and lastly $12,000. It adjoins other land belonging to Mr. Evans and the two places will make a very nice farm.—[Warrenton Virginian.

We learn that Dr. H. B. Hutchison, of Herndon, has made a private bid of $27,000 for the "Coton Farms," near Ashburn, the property of the late J. D. Yoemans, and that the offer is being seriously considered by the commissioners. The "Coton Farms" contain 1841 acres

The Wright farm, near Wheatland, containing 505 acres, has been sold through Mr. Berkeley Ward to a gentleman from New York, for $50 an acre.

The Carr farm of 160 acres, formerly known as "Hedgeland," lying between Paeonian and Waterford, has been sold to Mr. W. R. Thomas, of Tennessee. The farm is well improved, and we learn brought a good price.

Mr. S. T. Hickman has recently purchased from Mr. F. E. Saunders, agent for Mrs. R. A. Paxton, a valuable tract of fine timber and containing about 77 acres. This is considered one of the finest pieces of timber land on the east side of the Catoctin Mountain. The close proximity to Clark's Gap and Leesburg makes this a very valuable tract of land.—[Loudoun Mirror.

Rising from the Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lucama, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price only 05c.

SENATOR FORAKER

Senator Foraker was greeted by a large crowd at the Georgetown, Ohio, Chautauqua yesterday. His address was devoted largely to answering Secretary Taft's speech at Columbus Monday night.

The Senator said that Taft is losing ground in Ohio, but if he is nominated for the presidency all republicans will support him. Speaking of the tariff, Foraker said that if Taft is correct in saying that there are evils in the tariff, they ought to be remedied at once. He declared that the Secretary is wrong in saying that any great body of republicans desire the tariff revised now, or eighteen months hence. He declared that the railroad rate bill instead of strengthening the Elkins bill weakened it. Among other things he said:

"Consult the people about tariff revision in the next presidential campaign.

"How about the 10,000,000 black people in America who never drew a disloyal breath, who are openly and defiantly being denied their constitutional right of citizenship?

"What are the views of an aspirant to the presidency about the new rebellion that has broken out in some of the southern States, notably North Caroline and Alabama, in the form of open defiance of the authority of the United States courts?

"In more than 100 prosecutions the Elkins law, as originally enacted, has been found a quick, decisive, efficient and inexpensive remedy. No amendment of the Elkins law by the provisions of the Hepburn rate law has been invoked in any of these proceedings."

Cause of Trouble.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Aug. 22.—Secretary-Treasurer Bruce Chesterman of the Department of Agriculture made a statement today saying that his trouble with Commissioner Koiner grew out of his refusal to give a contract for the mailing department bulletins to Arthur Koiner, son of the commissioner.

Mrs. Eddy's Case.

Concord, N. H. Aug. 22.—Does the action of the "next friends" in withdrawing their suit in equity really mean the end of the legal efforts to penetrate the secrets of Mrs. Eddy's physical and mental condition, or is it merely another move in the game that has been in progress since last March? This is the question that is agitating the members of the Christian Science church today.

"Perhaps I will now enjoy some peace again," was Mrs. Eddy's comment when the discontinuance of the present litigation was reported to her. If there is anything in signs it is a vain hope, for the general impression, which the counsel for the plaintiffs have taken pains to encourage, is that within a month the case will be reopened in new form which will offer less opportunities for the Christain Science attorneys to hamper the efforts of their opponents.

That the withdrawal of the action in its present form is a confession of present defeat is generally acknowledged. The opponents of Christian Science, however, insist that in reality it was a tactical move to hasten the final decision which had become so involved that under the old course of proceeding no final result would have been possible for several years.

Alleged Murder.

New York, Aug. 22.—An admission of guilt, according to the police, was today wrung from George Carnie, who, with his sister, was held in the Police Court at Port Richmond, S. I., last night in the alleged plot to kill their brother-in-law, Frederick Hulse, according to District Attorney Kenney. Carnie is said to have denied, however, that his sister Marion had any connection with the supposed plot. The Carnies are well-to-do residents of Staten Island. Anxiety to secure $1,500 insurance on Hulse's life, the police claim, was the motive for planning the murder. Marion Carnie was the beneficiary of the policies. Hulse, who had lived with the brother and sister since his wife, their sister, died, is said to have recently informed them he expected to marry again. According to the police it was planned to kill Hulse and two men were hired to carry out the plan. One weakened and betrayed the plan to detectives.

Saved All Hands.

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—Alone on board, with the flames of his burning boat threatening each moment to envelop him in their deadly embrace, and knowing that the boilers might at any moment explode, Capt. Peter Thoner, of the harbor tug Robert K. Cassatt, stayed at the wheel of the doomed craft and safely beached it yesterday near Billingsport, N. J., thereby saving the lives of his crew and preventing the inevitable explosion from injuring other vessels. When the boat had been run on the Jersey shore the brave sailor opened the safety valves of the boiler and joined his crew in the lifeboat, to which he had ordered all hands when it became apparent that the tug could not be saved. As the lifeboat cleared the blazing hulk a steampipe exploded with force sufficient to have killed all hands had they remained on board.

Churches Aiding Strikers.

New York, Aug. 22.—Churches are giving financial aid to the striking telegraphers in New York city, according to an announcement made today at the union headquarters by Dan Russell, chief strategist.

"Our union helped the churches in exposing the pool rooms three years ago, giving evidence which was presented to the District Attorney, and our local passed a resolution forbidding members to work pool room wires," said Russell. "Now the church people are showing their appreciation in a most substantial manner. We have been raising funds quietly and will have $30,000 in the treasury by this time next week."

Bloody Encounter.

Buda-Pesth, Hungary, Aug 22.—A bloody encounter between peasants and Hungarian soldiers resulting in scores of casualties has occurred at Mostar, the chief town in the province of Herzegovinia. Soldiers invaded the town, plundering the homes of the peasants. The latter armed themselves with scythes, pitchforks, old guns and swords and attacked the soldiers' camp at night. A fierce fight followed before the peasants were repulsed. Twenty-seven persons were killed and nearly fifty were injured. Several of the soldiers were horribly butchered owing to the crude weapons used by the peasants.

Burned to Death by Gasoline.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 22.—In a gasoline stove explosion today Charle Webster and wife, and their two-year-old child were burned to death at their home near Warsaw. Mr. Webster lighted the fire when the tank exploded. The liquid was thrown over her and the child. As Webster tried to rescue them, his clothes caught fire and he was overcome. The house caught fire and was consumed. The three charred bodies were found in the debris.

Insurrectionary Emblems in Manila.

Manila, Aug. 22.—An organized crusade has been instituted by Americans against the display of Katipunian or insurrectionary emblems which have been flaunted with the great insolence in the faces of American officials and citizens alike in the last few weeks. Drastic measures will be resorted to if necessary and it is probable drastic legislation will be taken by the Americans to prevent the practice.

To Increase Interest.

New York, Aug. 22.—Hard pressed for cash and unable to float a loan on the terms thus far offered, the sinking fund commission will hold a session late this afternoon to consider an increase in the interest rate on New York City bonds from 4 to 4½ per cent.

The commission subsequently made the increase.

Assaulted and Murdered.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 22.—Miss Hallett, a young woman of Tashua, was murdered today by a hired man, who first criminally attacked her. He then set fire to the building in the hope of concealing the crime. It is reported that the fiend has been captured and a lynching is feared.

Mutiny of Soldiers.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 22.—Following a serious outbreak of soldiers along the Manchurian border, the latest of a number of mutinies, General Panteleef today filed with the Czar, a special report declaring that the Siberian troops are completely out of hand. In the event of a general revolt, the general declares, the soldiers will without doubt side with the revolutionists.

In the latest outbreak 400 mutineers barricaded themselves in their barracks and held at bay all Tuesday night a battalion of sharpshooters detailed to capture them. They inflicted heavy losses on the sharpshooters, while eighteen mutineers were killed and 35 wounded.

The outbreak followed an attempt by the colonel of the mutineers' regiment to break up a revolutionary meeting held in the fields where the soldiers attended. They declined to disperse.

Fighting continued all night and in the morning the surviving mutineers surrendered because their ammunition had been exhausted.

They were imprisoned, but last night other members of the regiment broke open the jail, freed their comrades and the whole party escaped across the border into Chinese territory.

Surrender of Suspected Murderer.

Pascoag, R. I., Aug. 22.—The hunt for Ernest A. Petsold, suspected of having murdered seven-year-old Helen M. Brown, whose dead body was found in a cottage between here and Mapleville, last Thursday, unexpectedly ended early today, when Petsold walked into the kitchen of Constable Andrew Higgins and gave himself up.

Petsold declared that he had been in Providence and Fair Haven, Mass., since Saturday. Petsold denied that he struck the blow which resulted in her death. On the contrary, he says, he found her unconscious in the yard when he returned from a visit to the postoffice here, where he had gone to inquire for mail for the child's mother on Tuesday.

He did all he could to bring her to consciousness, he asserts, before he sent word to Dr. Ashton on Wednesday morning and he had worked over her all night. When the physician arrived some four hours later, he declared, the girl had been dead about two hours. She died at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The Belmont-Ryan Combine.

New York, Aug. 22—August Belmont and Thomas F. Ryan, are bitterly at outs. Rumors of an impending dissolution of the Belmont-Ryan traction combine have been in circulation for some time. Few Wall street men believed them at first. Now they are generally accepted as true, nor is it likely that the prospects of a break between the two big interests, will be long delayed.

The whole trouble is due to the fact that while the subway and "L" systems are immensely profitable, the surface lines are not even earning enough to meet their outstanding obligations. The Metropolitan street railways' financial embarrassments have been admitted by well informed witnesses before the New York Public Service Commission.

The Belmont interests are consequently trying to free their properties of the surface lines incubus by throwing it back on the hands of Ryan and his associates.

Bolt Severs Finger.

Philadelphia, August 22.—Victim of freak lightning during the storm yesterday, Mrs. Mary Nettie, of 296 Richmond street, is in the Episcopal Hospital minus one finger and suffering from loss of blood. As he was about to leave an Allegheny avenue car, at D street, during the height of the storm, a bolt of lightning struck the motor, glanced off, severed the index finger of her left hand as if it were cut off with the sharpest knife, opened a vein in her wrist and set fire to her clothing. Several passengers carried her to the street, and, aided by the heavy downpour, extinguished the blaze. By the time Mrs. Nettie was in the hospital she was exhausted from the loss of blood and shock.

Railway Wreck.

Richmond, Ind., Aug. 22.—Roscoe E. Freyburn was killed and eight Pan Handle trainmen were seriously injured last night in a wreck that occurred at Hagerstown. A Pan Handle wrecking train was returning to Richmond and was descending a steep grade at a speed of 60 miles an hour when it crashed into the rear of a Pan Handle freight. The wreck ploughed through the freight demolishing many cars. The wreckage took fire and it was with great difficulty that the injured were rescued. The wreck crew were in the caboose and all were injured.

Striking Steamboatmen.

New York, Aug. 22.—Difficulties arose today between the Atlantic Marine Firemen's Association, and the Harbor Boatmen's Union as the result of the strike of firemen and oilers on board the ferry boats of the Long Island Railroad Company, a short time yesterday. About 60 firemen and oilers are out and it is charged that nearly all their places have been filled by the boatmen's union.

Accident to Empress.

Wilhelm Shohe, Germany, Aug. 22.—Empress Victoria Augusta is confined to her bed in the palace today as the result of an accident yesterday. The empress was walking in the garden when she slipped on the wet ground and fell, breaking a blood vessel in her leg. Her intended visits to Schwerin and Hanover have been cancelled.

President Small Defiant.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—"We will fight it out along these lines if it takes all winter," said President Small, of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, today. "We are able to hold out until December with our present resources, and we can increase our assets by that time to fight the companies for an indefinite period."

Riot at a Picnic.

New York, Aug. 22.—Half a dozen men are lying at the point of death today and a score of others are in hospitals or under the care of physicians at their homes as a result of the riot in which 8,000 men participated late yesterday at the outing of the Tammany Jefferson Club, the organization of Louis J. Haffen, of the Bronx, at Witzell's Point, View Grove, College Point. In addition hundreds of men are nursing broken heads and bruises received in the fight or at the hands of the police. Starting in a quarrel because one of picnickers demanded a second dish of ice cream, the fight assumed the proposition of a pitched battle in which revolvers, black jacks, knives, clubs, and every imaginable sort of weapons were used and continued for an hour.

Defied Injunction.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 22.—Defying injunctions from courts and parental resistance to his marriage to Miss Katherine Homan, James Payton wedded the young woman at Manitou, Col, according to news received today. Several years ago, Payton saw a photograph of Miss Homan and promptly fell in love. It was a long time before finally he made the acquaintance of the young woman, but when he did he proposed and was rejected. Nothing daunted, Payton a week later, repeated his offer of marriage. The girl's parents here became interested and Miss Homan swore out a warrant for Payton's arrest. The case was dismissed and the one-sided love making affair renewed. Miss Homan sought protection of the civil courts and Judge McVey enjoined Payton from making love. Using telephone and mail Payton persisted and the courts enjoined him from doing this. Then Payton started to break injunctions right and left.

His Wife Returned.

New York, Aug. 22.—As happy as on his wedding day, Charles W. Moffett, of Brooklyn, rejoiced today in the return of his wife and Rev. Asbury A. Wheedon, after they had been away together nearly a week. "They are both religious fanatics and their relations are entirely platonic," said Moffett, today. "We were ordered to return by the voice of God," said the preacher as he placed his hands upon the shoulders of Moffett and advised him to "be a man of God, and show your Christian spirt by forgiving your wife." Moffett had appealed to the police to find his wife and preacher who had left his house together, but he said he did not suspect them of eloping. Now all is happiness in the Moffett home again and the religious wife of eighteen years and the trusting husband have received again as a boarder the preacher who is 57 years old and has a wife and two children in Elizabeth, N. J.

A Fiend Confesses.

Meadville, Pa., Aug. 22.—Henry Wagner, who confessed to the brutal attack on 14 year old Alma Whitehead, near Greenville, has confessed to two similar crimes—one at Ridgely, W. Va., and the other at West Newton, Pa. In mumbling speech Wagner admitted that on June 22, last he attacked fifteen year old Nellie Ott, at Ridgely, and July 6, attacked Mary Medsger, aged 14, at West Newton. Then he confessed that he was Henry Lehna, of West Newton, where his relatives reside. Lehna admitted to three attacks on Alma Whitehead, which means three counts in the indictment and maximum imprisonment of 45 years. Officers frankly admitted that Lehna would probably be lynched before they could get him to jail in West Virginia.

Moor's Repulsed.

Paris, Aug. 22.—The Moorish tribesmen who have been besieging Casa Blanca have been driven back from the town and the hills they occupied for so many days, are now held by the French forces. This is the official report received today from Admiral Philibert commanding the foreign warships in Moroccan waters.

Another fierce attack on Casa Blanca was made yesterday, according to the Admiral's advices, but was repulsed. Soldiers were then sent into the hills dispersing the natives who are almost without ammunition and then seizing their strongholds.

Another Murder.

New York, Aug. 22.—Two portions of the torso of a woman picked up in the Hudson river off the foot of Bloomfield street today are believed by the police to evidence a brutal and mysterious murder. A keen edged knife had been used in severing the fragments which apparently were from a young and well nourished woman. A handkerchief had been wrapped about the chunks of flesh, and in turn a half opened towel. Laundry marks which were almost obliterated were found on both handkerchief and towel and an effort will be made to trace the linen. Doctors who examined the flesh said it had not been in the water more than a few hours.

A Veteran Robbed.

Montreal, Canada, Aug. 22.—General de Negrier, of Paris, retired veteran of the French army, for many years the commander of the troops in Algeria, and renowned globe trotter, was outdone by a clever crook here today, who left the old warrior without provender or means of transportation. The thief took the general's wallet containing all his ready cash and a letter of credit as he was stepping on a street car.

Another Failure.

New York, Aug. 22.—The failure of Mills Brothers & Co., a Wall street firm, was announced today on the stock exchange and it is said that the account of Richard A. Canfield, of Saratoga, was the cause of the trouble. A report that the failure was connected with the failure last fall, of James W. Henning, was positively denied by Henning's friends, who said he paid the Mills Company in full. The story in the stock exchange is that firm was carrying a large amount of stock for Canfield. It is alleged that Canfield's margins were running low and that the firm closed out his accounts. It is alleged that Canfield claimed he had not been given due notice and insisted that his stocks be replaced or delivered to him which the firm was unable to do.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 22.—The stock market had a stronger tone all through the first hour, with a general advance in that period ranging from fractions to over 2 per cent. Soon after the opening the street was full of rumors of a coming failure, later announced, caused, according to street gossip, by the closing out of an account of 50,000 shares of stock on which the margin had almost been exhausted, without notice to the principal, who now insists on the delivery of the stock held for his account.

Everybody's Magazine for September has been received from its publishers in New York. Its articles cover a wide range from an account of the "Peace Conference" to a study of "The Department Store." In "Nature Fakirs" President Roosevelt renews his attack on W. J. Long and others. "Where did you get it, gentlemen?" considers the source of wealth of Pennsylvania boodle millionaires, and the baseball "fans" and their frenzies are breezily described. The fiction feature of this number is "The Judgment of Eve," a novelette by May Sinclair; five short stories, a serial and good verse are also contributed.

ASSAILANT ARRESTED.

When northbound freight train No. 73 of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad reached the Potomac yards about 5 o'clock this morning Conductor Hutchinson and other members of the crew placed under arrest a negro who gave his name as William Harris and his age as 23, who had boarded the train at Richmond, but had not been seen by either of the crew until the train reached Milford. When the negro was taken in custody and questioned concerning his presence on the train he made no hesitation in stating that he was fleeing from Chester, between Richmond and Petersburg, where he said he had attempted to criminally assault Lena Roland, an eighteen-year-old white girl. Upon being further questioned the negro stated that he approached the girl yesterday while she was in the garden attached to her home, and that her outcries caused him to release her and make his escape. He later boarded the freight train at Richmond. Constables Pennypacker and Cornell, of Alexandria county, were notified and they took charge of Harris and brought him to this city and he was placed in a cell at the station house. After he had been locked up he answered all questions propounded him, and didn't appear at all concerned as to the seriousness of the crime he imputed to himself. The negro will be held subject to the action of the authorities in the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed. Harris when asked if he knew the penalty for the crime he alleges he attempted to commit, replied in the affirmative, and said he supposed he would be hanged. It has been suggested that the negro should have been conducted by the constables to the Alexandria county jail, as he was arrested beyond the city limits.

Chief Goods received a dispatch from G. E. Robertson, a Justice of the Peace of Chester, about noon today asking that Harris be held. Constable Jarrell was to leave Chester at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Alexandria.

Harris has repeated his story several times during the day. He stated this afternoon that when he seized Miss Roland he threw her down, and her screams caused him to grasp her by the throat. The girl called to her brother for aid, and when he appeared with a gun he released his intended victim and walked away.

Chester is about 13 miles south of Richmond. Harris will be placed in Manchester jail, as the jail in Chesterfield is not deemed secure.

Feeling in the county is high. Miss Roland is said to be a beautiful girl. Herman Branch had bloodhounds out last night searching for Harris.

A dispatch from Chester says the attempted assault was made yesterday morning about 8:30 o'clock. Harris had been working for Miss Roland's father, but on account of his trifling propensities had been ordered off the premises. Mr. Roland left home early yesterday morning leaving at home his daughter, who is about eighteen-years of age, with her brother, of about eight years, and her little sister of four years, for whom she had been a mother since their mother died. Shortly after her father left she went into the garden, and the negro was in hiding in the high grass nearby, and it was there he attacked her. She screamed, and her little brother ran to the scene, and gave the man a blow with his fist and while trying to get the boy from him, the young woman managed to get away, but the negro caught hold of her immediately. She called to the boy to run to the house and get the gun and shoot him, and the little fellow did his best to carry out her command. The negro then ceased his attack and ran, and when the little fellow returned he had the gun cocked, and to his shoulder, though he had never fired a gun. He stated that when he got to the spot, only about fifty yards from the house, the negro had gotten over the garden fence, and made his escape behind a house before he could fire. The young lady was unharmed farther than a slight bruise over the left eye.

QUIT HIS JOB.

R. C. Acton, one of the operators imported by the Western Union from Alexandria, to take the place of men now on strike here, requested his time this morning and leaves this afternoon for his home.

Unfortunately, Acton is addicted to the use of intoxicants and to this he attributes his step. Concerning a statement he made yesterday, of which he has no clear recollection, Acton seems greatly upset that he made mention of Manager Stultz, of the Alexandria Western Union office, in connection with his coming to Richmond.

"Stultz is one of the best friends I have," he said today, "and as far as his persuading me to take the position here it is untrue."

"I was at home, out of work, and Stultz said to me, 'You can get a job I guess in Richmond.' I took a night train, and I must say I was intoxicated at the time, and came to Richmond and 'scabbed.' I am ashamed of myself, now that I am in my right senses and see what I have done. I wont take the boys' jobs and have quit the Western Union until the strike is settled. I came here while I was not responsible for my actions and was put to work in this condition. Stultz is not to blame and did not use any influence to get me to come to Richmond."

Acton was at union headquarters all yesterday and left for Alexandria last night, having earned $14.88 in two days work with the Western Union, as he was paid double time for his services. —[Richmond Journal.

CITY COMMITTEE.

Under the democratic plan of organization the several city and county democratic committees must be elected every two years—or when the nominations for the legislature are made. A primary to nominate a State Senator will be held in this district on September 15th, so under the plan a new city committee must be chosen on that day.

THE STEAMER NORFOLK.

The tugboat Rescue, belonging to the Merritt Wrecking Company, has arrived at Matompkin Shoals where the steamer Norfolk is aground, and it is thought that the latter will be pulled into deep water at high tide today.

The forward portion of the steamer is aground, the stern being in deep water, and at low tide her bow is about four feet out of the water. It is thought by some that the steamer must have been seriously damaged by the impact when she struck, while others suggest that she ran into a bed of stone which had been placed around the beacon at the shoals to protect it from floating ice. Officers of the company, however, affirm that the steamer has suffered no damage, and that she ran upon a sand bar. The boat is said to have been going at full speed when she ran aground.

THE LATE E. M. COLOGNE.

Mr. E. M. Cologne, a native of this place but for a long time living in Washington, died on Saturday last. His remains were brought to Warrenton. Mr. Cologne's parents came to Warrenton after one of the numerous insurrections of the blacks in the West Indies when nearly all the whites were murdered. They brought with them a convent bell which was used in the court house here before the fire and was of wonderful sweetness. There was quite a large family of sons noted for their sterling worth and manhood. The subject of this sketch with an elder brother entered the Confederate army and became distinguished as soldiers. He filled various important positions in Warrenton and elsewhere, and finally was brought to the cemetery here to rest with other members of his family.—[Warrenton Virginian.

REMAINS PLACED IN VAULT.

The remains of John W. Turner, the electric railway lineman who was killed by a fall from a portable tower near Spring Park last Saturday, were placed in a vault in St. Mary's cemetery by Mr. B. Wheatley today. Mr. Percy Clift, of the electric road, has received a letter from Miss Ella Kirlin, of Jackson, Tenn., asking him to send the remains to that city, but as the lady is not related to the deceased Mr. Clift decided not to comply with her request. This evening he had the remains placed in the vault. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The republicans of this district will hold a convention at Schuler's Hall, in this city, on Tuesday evening at 1 o'clock to nominate a candidate for Congress to be defeated by Mr. C. C. Carlin, the democratic nominee. The convention will be called to order by District Chairman H. P. Dodge, of Manassas. But little interest is being taken in the convention and it is not believed that it will be largely attended. It is expected that Mr. William B. King, of Loudoun county, will be the nominee.

UNION DEPOT.

The surroundings west of the new union station are very attractive at present. Beautiful lawns and flower beds have been multiplied and everything is growing luxuriantly. People employed at the station complain of the depredation of stray cows which are constantly damaging the flower beds, and they say it will be necessary to corral cows which in future may be found trespassing upon the company's property and their owners be made to pay the prescribed penalty.

COOLER WEATHER.

The sultry weather of yesterday was followed in the afternoon by rain and cooler conditions. More showers followed at the close of the day and during the night, the temperature in the meantime falling considerably. The weather today has been cool and threatening.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late Mrs. Honora Harlow was admitted to probate today and her son, Mr. M. B. Harlow, qualified as executor. The deceased left her estate to her children.

THE MOROCCAN SITUATION.

The Moroccan situation is regarded as having assumed a distinctly more serious aspect. The ferment in the interior of Morocco, the proclamation of Mulai Hafig, the Sultan's brother, as sultan by a section of the rebels and the appearance of a new Moorish army before Casablanca have created the fear that the whole country will soon be ablaze with fanaticism. General Drude, commander of the French forces at Casablanca, has asked for reinforcements, pointing out that his men are worn out with being constantly under arms, but especially insisting that he is losing the advantage gained by his successes because the limited force at his disposal prevents him from following up his victories.

Special dispatches received in Paris yesterday from Tangier say that Mulai Hafig, the brother of the Sultan of Morocco, who recently was proclaimed Sultan, is marching on Casablanca with Moorish reinforcements to the number of 15,000 men, recruited from the most fierce and fanatical tribesmen of the south of Morocco.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME.

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM G. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TO CLOSE SALOONS.

Under an agreement entered into by nearly all the brewers of Indiana, which is to be perfected today by the signing of articles, the brewers will cause the establishment of saloons in all the cities of that State, and those now in existence will be closed as soon as the licenses expire. For several years the competition has been so fierce among brewers that they established saloons in cases where the saloonkeeper agreed to sell their beer, and in cases of remonstrances the brewers were obliged to take on themselves the burden of the defense. A great deal of prejudice against them as a class was thus engendered, and they have determined to abandon the practice in order to conciliate the temperance element, which is closing so many saloons. It is estimated that the agreement between the brewers will result in closing 2,000 saloons in the cities of the State.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Neighbors Got Fooled.

CANDIDATES.

Senator Machen Asks Renomination.

To the Democrats of the Fourteenth Senatorial District:

I hereby announce that I shall seek a renomination as State Senator at the democratic primary September 10th.

For many years it has been the custom in this district to return a Senator for a second term if he so desired, and I trust that a careful scrutiny of my official record will not disclose any reason for violating this custom at this time.

Having been a resident of Alexandria for more than 5 years, and having been for a much longer period associated in business and otherwise with the people of the city, it is natural to suppose that I understand its needs and could serve its interests in the legislature as well as some one who is not a resident and has had no legislative experience. I solicit the generous support of my home city.

Respectfully,
aug16 td LEWIS H. MACHEN.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 14TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. I respectfully announce myself a candidate for State Senate in the democratic primary September 10th, 1907. ALEX. J. WEDDERBURN.

FOR STATE SENATE.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Senator from the 14th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the democratic primary to be held on September 10, 1907, and if nominated and elected, I pledge myself to the service of the best interests of the district and State. Very Respectfully,
B. E. THORNTON.
Fairfax, Va., Aug. 17.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY:

I respectfully announce that I will be a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates of Virginia, subject to the decision of the democratic primary to be held on the 10th day of September, 1907. I beg to express my sincere appreciation of the confidence expressed by my fellow citizens in conferring this honor upon me for three successive terms, and to assure them, if re-elected, that, as I have in the past, I will in the future devote my best energies and abilities to represent faithfully the interests of the constituency which has so often honored me.
